Why does City National Bank specialize in Auto Loans?

"First, City National Bank has long experience in offering No-Hassle, No-Haggle<sup>sm</sup> Auto Loans. Second of all, the people at City national are as expert in making friends as they are in making loans. City National has some of the most experienced personnel you'll ever find in a bank. And that's just the way I want it to stay.

If you cannot pay cash for a new car, come to City National Bank of New Jersey. We will give you all the courtesy, sound advice, and fast service that you need to get a new car loan. And you can bank on that from me."

They say that as long as blacks ignore and fail to participate in the voting process, that we will continue to get our "just deserts" — representatives who are not interested in the plight of minorities.

REGISTER NOW! so you can vote!

Your vote DOES matter and you cannot cast one if you are not registered. Don't let it continue to be said that "Blacks don't vote." Put your candidate in the City Council and the County Freeholders.

NAMES IN THE NEWS:

BOBBIE COTTLE, the newly elected president of Newark NAACP, at the head of the long line of other officers and board members at Zion Hill Baptist Church the past Sunday A.M., being installed by ETHEL MAE MOORE, life member chairman, and in the line up such names as CLARA DEAN, and former ECC pray GEORGE HARRIS and HELEN GARDNER and CLEO BLOUNT ... At the same service at Zion Hill, the church with 92 brilliant stained glass windows, and a red robed choir, the REV. J. W. MAPSON, blaming today's crime on civil rights activists of the sixties, who he said forgot God.

BOB QUEEN, steering along Clifton Ave. in his press-decorated car, concerned with problems connected with the Afro's migration to East Orange from 11 Hill St. ... DORIS MANNING, host to a big Yule party Saturday night, annoyed at the press not appearing to cover it, but then she is skilled at news coverage herself, so managed ... MARIA MARTINEZ of Jersey City, so much involved in news coverage during 1980, seems to have withdrawn from that area, due to increased duties at North Ward Education Center.

Reviewing the latter half of 1980 social and civic doings, the Rise of the Newark League of Women Voters, headed by ANN EVANS of Tuxedo Parkway ... the absence of fabulous JUDY YOUNG of Sweet Orange from the social scene, due to home duties; she's the young beauty of Exxon, who rides her own stallion, drives a Jaguar and also a motorcycle. The summer's end parties in her pool were star events ... another figure, always on the social scene, EDNA ALBA of Newark, absent from several major Yule events ... CAROLYN SIMS, the veteran Court House figures is reported married again, but no verification as yet.

CAROLYN STARNES of Morristown attended the NAACP event at Zion Hill Baptist, driving her mother in one of her husbands several cars, works as an LPN, attending rich families ... Add '80 events, the huge affair of the Third Ward Girls at the Terrace in August, that drew near 2000 ... the first Ebony Fashion Fair committee meet at the West Orange mansion of MATTIE WHIGHAM with luncheon on her vast lawn ... the Fair models later at the pre-show party at the Paradisio, posing for pictures, and in charge of Ebony sales manager, BOB FENTESS.

The EBB Diner in Hillside in August where kiddies ran the program headed by EUGENE BYERS ... the Bronze Shields summer splash party at the HERBERT KILLIBREWS in West Orange, where A. H. writers VALERIE SMITH and MARIA MARTINEZ, donned bathing suits and swam, instead of taking notes ... the big Congress campaigns of GOLDEN JOHNSON, DONALD PAYNE and the REV. RUSSEL FOX and the 100 Black Men and their plans for the big game, between S.C. State and N.C.A. and T. at Meadowlands, with OLIVER LOFTON, ESQ. the master mind of both the game and the exciting party there afterwards.

The growing need for adequate exposure of existing Black-owned enterprises in the New Jersey-New York area, both to Black and White consumers.

Bridging the "exposure gap" between Black-owned enterprises and big business.

Dealing with one of the severe causes of limited business success among many Black-owned enterprises located in New Jersey & New York.

Creating a unique medium to serve the inner and outer communities through an increasing consumer awareness of broad range of products and services by Black-owned businesses.

Opportunities for widening the market ability of goods and services offered by Black-owned businesses, at a level of exposure unavailable anywhere else at comparable costs.

Providing a continuing service annually to the minority business community; increasing awareness of the values of minority contributions in products and services for the economic growth of our cities.

A meaningful step toward the reality of economic development among minorities.

A greater knowledge, locally and nationally, of the important role which Blacks and other minorities play in the life of our communities, our city and the country as a whole.

L. (') AWARDS — This column essayed to denote awards to those whom the many award-making organizations forgot during 1980—and others: To EMILY MILES, this time as choreographer for her creations at the Phi Delta Kappa sorority at the Marriott, where the 19 debs carried the flowered hoops during the Cotillion dance, to HERBERT KILLIBREW and wife for their luxurious hosting each summer of the Bronze Shields spalsh party, the event laden with music, food, drinks and bathing ... and to NELLIE GRIER, senior citizen leader, who at 80 gets around to major events without aid.

And KITTY TAYLOR of UCC who rides the affairs of seniors with grace and efficiency ... and ARLENA SALLEY, the beautician leader, who keeps the media apprized of MBA events ... also LOUISE EPPERSON, MBA vice president, who never fears to insist on that groups staging the best affairs, like the annual convention in Atlantic City ... ROBERT WELLS, co chairman of the convention should have received the award...

JEANNE R. BENSON, state president of the N.J. Federation of Colored Womens clubs deserves an oscar for staging that group's convention in Cherry Hill and saluteting to black business in the state, despite the absence of the program's organizer.

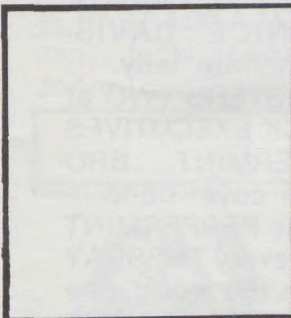

MORE HONORS — To the Rev. GRANVILLE STEWART of Mt. Zion Baptist, who commuted to Colgate Univ. - Rochester for his doctorate and at the same time, entered many students into the school's Divinity School ... and, recently DECOSTA LAWSON, the choral master, now of Christ Episcopal in East Orange, formerly of Union Baptist of Orange, who staged his great "Massiah" concert at the same time his daughter, Stephanie, won the Queen title at the recent Phi Delta Kappa Cotillion at the Marriot ... which recalls the Cotillion's organizer and chairman, JESSIE WILKERSON, the E.O. schoolmarm....

Also, HELEN SAPORO, of Newark, retired from NHDA, but still the noted soloist, now, with the Christ Episcopal Church choral group ... JANET BEADLE, celebrating a quarter century of annual production of "Along Fifth Avenue" ... and RUTH HURD MINOR of Roselle, winning her doctorate and visiting prof at King's College, also a GOP leader who backed Pres. Reagan all the way. Don't forget, CARL BRINSON, Newark's Affirmative Action officer, who helped organize the recent AAAA confab at the Hilton, and is plotting for his 21-year old mag to hit the big time.

WALI UGDAH, the East Orange model king, whose shows are spreading into the nation, beginning with his Chic Models also branched in Chicago ... and LILLIAN HAMMOND who has made the Talented Teen pageant a production affair, with one national winner and other runner ups ... LANGDON DAMES' of the Urban League, whose events are always crowded, including the Youth Employability Skills program that processes youth into important jobs.

PRAYER— Erma Stripling, Elizabeth Tate and Gladys Francis, officers of the Phyliss Wheatley Club in prayer as celebration gets under way at 70th anniversary of Phyliss Wheatley Club at Newark's Parish House.

Batons to install new leadership

Charles L. Black, attached to the Internal Affairs Division of the Essex County Division of Correction, will be installed president of the Batons Inc. next Sunday at 6:30 p.m. at Fullman's Onion Inn, 1049 Clinton Ave., Irvington.

Black, who has been in law enforcement for 15 years in Essex County, succeeds Larry A. Butler, director of the Essex County Juveniles in Need of Supervision (JINS), as head of the 100-member organization.

The installation ceremony and swearing in of the new officers will be conducted by Dr. Jennie D. Brown, director of the Division of Correction of Essex County.

The organization, which is made up of black law enforcement officers from throughout the state, was organized 28 years ago as a nonprofit civic and charitable group.

The Central Ward Boy's Club, the NAACP and scholarships for needy students are among the projects supported by the organization. The club is a charter member of the National Black Police Association and is involved in helping to promote and maintain good relations between the police and the community.

Other officers to be installed are: Capt. Rita Stapleton of the Essex County Jail, first vice president; Chester Holmes of the Rahway Police Department, second vice president; Winnie Gnatt Davis, retired from the Essex County Corrections Center, corresponding secretary, and Newark policeman Clarence Davis, recording secretary;

Also, Paul Dietrich, attached to the Newark office as deputy U.S. marshal, treasurer; Leon Bryant, attached to the Essex County Prosecutor's Office, financial secretary; Newark policeman James Daniels, assistant financial secretary; Sgt. Beatrice Trimmel of the Essex County Jail, historian; Allen C. Martin, Union County undersheriff, chaplain; retired Newark Lt. Reuben Battle, sergeant-at-arms, and Larry Butler, trustee.

King birthday tribute planned

A commemorative program celebrating the birthday of the late Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. will be held 6 to 12 p.m. Jan. 15 in the Club Paradisio, 984 Broad St., Newark.

The program, entitled "Tribute to a King," is being sponsored by the Black Heritage Day Parade Committee and the Leadership Development Group and seeks to point out the relevance of King's life to present times.

King, the Nobel Peace Prize-winning civil rights leader, was in the forefront of the struggle for black equality in the 1960s. The founder of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), King was assassinated in Memphis in 1968.

The highlight of the program will be a special guest presentation by Gil Noble, host of the weekly black news and commentary television show "Like It Is."

Noble, a widely traveled journalist and lecturer, has produced several award-winning documentary films, among them accounts of the lives of black activists King and Malcolm X.

Newark radio personality Bill Franklin will be the evening's emcee, and the affair will feature live entertainment and refreshments.

LDG is a nonprofit organization organized in Newark to teach leadership skills to city residents, with an emphasis on Newark. The parade committee, which sponsors an annual event highlighting the achievements of blacks, works to promote awareness of the heritage of black people through cultural events and educational programs.

Attorney Junius Williams, LDG coordinator, said the King celebration "is our way of beginning to show how the past can be helpful to explain the pathway to the future. Dr. King was not only a great leader, but a symbol of an era that must be examined for its relevance today."

Kurt Culbreath, chairman of the Black Heritage Day Parade Committee, said: "We believe that the life and times of Dr. King should serve to inspire all Newark residents to go forward in the name of human rights and dignity. We join wholeheartedly in the salute to this great leader."

"POLICE HOME RULE"

State Assemblyman EUGENE H. THOMPSON (D-Essex) stated that he has some very serious reservations concerning recommendations to Gov. Brendan Byrne whereby the State may seek control over local police.

The Assemblyman stated that "aside from the plan raising some serious questions addressing Home Rule, the rationale that the reforms would target street crime raises a suspicion in my mind that the recommendations intend to reach an objective not stated."

The Assemblyman went on to state that the recommendations reminds one of Lewis Carroll's Through the Looking Glass, where Humpty Dumpty said to Alice "There's Glory for you." "I don't know what you mean by Glory" Alice said. Humpty Dumpty smiled contemptuously. "Of course you don't — till I tell you. I mean there's a nice knock down argument for you." "But Glory doesn't mean a nice knock down argument for you" Alice objected.

"When I use a word "Humpty Dumpty said in rather a scornful tone, it means just what I choose it to mean — neither more nor less." "The question is," said Alice, "whether you can make words mean so many different things." "The question is," said Humpty Dumpty, "which is to be Master — that's all."

The Assemblyman further stated that "I absolutely have no problem with the complete elimination of Street Crime. In fact, this problem has and still is a major concern to Blacks since we are the major victims of said crime. But, I assume that we still live in a free society and I would rather see the problem of street crime resolved on a local level rather than have Home Rule eliminated and replaced by a non-resident Big Brother."

The Assemblyman went on to state that "earlier reports regarding the question of state control over local police had mentioned that the State of Louisiana had tried this approach."

The Public Information Officer, New Orleans Police Dept. stated that this approach has never been attempted because it constitutes an absolute infringement on Home Rule."

In conclusion, the Assemblyman went on to state "with respect to my assembly district, I have the greatest confidence in the professionalism of the Police Department and it's Director. The issue is money to carry out the November 4, 1980, referendum and not an Orwell solution."

CONSUMER ACTIONCALL

The Newark Office of Consumer Action advises consumers to shop wisely and avoid being ripped-off during the holiday season.

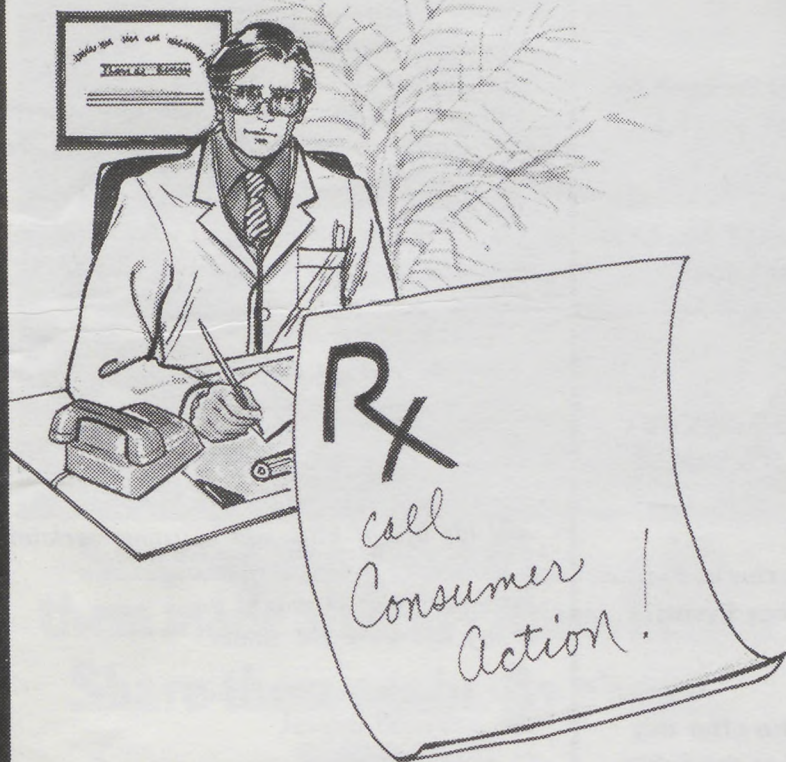

"Holiday shoppers should be extra careful when shopping and not let unscrupulous merchants take advantage of their holiday spirit," said Hope Jackson, Manager of the Newark Office of Consumer Action.

By observing these important points, consumers can save money, time and trouble.

- DON'T GET RIPPED-OFF!
- Always deal with reliable stores.
  - Don't deal with stores that just sell for the holiday and close soon after.
  - Never deal with street vendors. Nine out of ten times they do not stand behind what they sell. If you encounter a problem with your merchandise, you most likely will never see the street vendor again.
  - Save all receipts for future returns.
  - Ask if the item purchased can be returned or exchanged. Make sure it's in writing and you have a receipt; some stores aren't that reliable.
  - Check all toys when purchased to make sure they are operating properly.
  - Make sure the toys you buy are recommended by the manufacturer for the particular age of the child you are buying the toy.
  - Never purchase items on the street that are factory packed. What you pay for may not be what you'll find in the package.
  - Never purchase items that you can't inspect prior to purchase.
  - Shop around for the best buy, compare prices as well as quality.
  - Never remove price tags from items. Some stores will not accept them for returns.
  - Beware of bargains that are too good to be true.
  - Make sure the salesman is really a salesman and not someone trying to make you a deal you can't refuse. Department stores are crowded and your money may be someone's Christmas gift.
